MOTOR AND WIRING BURNED; ABANDONED ON IRISH HILL

Hood and Radiator are Badly Scorched Result of Fire

THIS automobile of Fred Muenkel, Caledonia, stolen from a parking place near Fifth and King streets about midnight Monday, was recovered by the police department early Tuesday. The car had been abandoned near the corner of Irish hill after a fire started in the motor. The police department is the party responsible for the theft.

Police traced the machine in early Tuesday morning after it had been discovered on the hill by Alder Peshoff and Jack Wright. The car, a 1921 model, was badly damaged. The wiring system and all internal parts of the motor were destroyed. That a lot of fire resulted from the flames spreading to the hood and on the motor, was evidenced by the scorched paint over the hood and radiator. The hood and radiator were badly scorched. The machine was abandoned on Irish hill.

Muenkel reported the theft of his car to central station about 1 o'clock Tuesday morning. He had parked it near the intersection of Fifth and King streets, leaving the key in the car. Officer Rask accompanied by Muenkel, located the machine in about 4 o'clock.

FORMER KAISER ENGAGED TO WED WIDOW REPORTS LONDON; DENY RUMOR OF SON'S DEATH

LONDON.—The former German Kaiser's intended bride is the Princess Hermine of Reuss, 31-year-old widow, according to a report quoted by the Daily Mail's Berlin correspondent.

The engagement, he adds, will not be announced until after the anniversary of the late ex-kaiser's birthday.

The Times of London, August 25, published a report that former Emperor William was betrothed to the widow of a German aristocrat almost of royal rank.

Princess Hermine is the widow of Prince Jean of Schomberg-Carolath, who died in April, 1920. She was born December 17, 1887, and is the mother of five children. She owns a large estate in Silesia.

FREDERICK NOT DEAD

BOON, Holland.—By The Associated Press.—Rumors circulated in Berlin Monday of the death of former Emperor Prince Frederick William of Germany, who is starting here with his father, were denied Tuesday by the latter's personal physician.

The absence of any important occurrence at the former Kaiser's residence was emphasized by the departure of the burmaster of Boon Tuesday morning for a fishing trip.

The Associated Press correspondent saw Frederick driving his automobile at seven o'clock Monday night.

CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE AT NOVEMBER ELECTION PICKED TODAY BY BADGER VOTERS

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—By The Associated Press.—Fair weather in all but the northwestern part of the state indicated that a heavy vote would be polled Tuesday in Wisconsin's state-wide primary.

In the far northwestern section it rained early in the day but the report stated that it would probably clear up later and that a fair sized vote was looked for there.

Both the La Follette and Ganfield workers were making a house to house canvass in Milwaukee in an effort to get out the full vote, and considering the fact that a large number of industrial houses had announced a partial holiday to permit their employees to exercise the right of suffrage early indications pointed to a record-breaking primary total.

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—By The Associated Press.—Wisconsin voters are Tuesday, in a primary election, determining the make-up of the list of candidates, including those of United States senator and congressmen, and state and legislative tickets, who will have their names printed on the official ballots at the general election in November.

United States Senator R. M. La Follette seeks to be returned. He campaigned the state quite thoroughly in defense of his record on war and other measures in the upper house of congress. He attacked President Harding's administration and its acts. He said the four-power treaty as well as the Versailles treaty were objectionable to him and the McCumber-Fordney tariff bill he pronounced the "greatest robber tariff ever attempted." The Esch-Cummins law was denounced and the proposed ship subsidy attacked.

William A. Ganfield, president of Carroll college and chosen by the citizens' republican wing to oppose La Follette, put up an active campaign in which he attacked the senior senator's war record, his proposal to destroy the supreme court of the final decision as to constitutionality of laws, and what he termed his apparent affiliation with the socialists.

The republicans of Wisconsin by their votes will decide between the two. Associated with Senator La Follette and Mr. Ganfield, heading two separate republican tickets, are Governor J. J. Blaine and Attorney General William J. Morgan, respectively, each racing for the party gubernatorial nomination.

Added to this is a third party republican gubernatorial candidate in Mayor A. C. Melnyk of Oshkosh, running as an independent on a "constitutional liberty" platform. Mr. Melnyk's candidacy, coupled with those of Mayor A. Bentley of La Crosse, and Karl Mathis, Wausau, who seek the gubernatorial nomination on the democratic ticket as wet and dry candidates, respectively, is expected in a measure to test the strength of the prohibition cause in Wisconsin.

Candidates Home to Vote
MADISON, Wis.—By The Associated Press.—Candidates seeking party nomination at the Wisconsin general election primary went home to vote Tuesday—their campaigns to place before the voters the principles upon which they ask endorsement completed.

Interest today turned from the expressions of the aspirants for governmental office to the expression of the Wisconsin electorate. Having rested their case with the people, the candidates retired to vote and to watch for the word from the other voters that will register their political fate.

William A. Ganfield, president of Carroll college, Monday night ended his first campaign for public office. He was back in Waukesha Tuesday confident that the voters would nominate him republican candidate for the United States senate. A confidence he says has been gained through expressions he has received after the more than 200 speeches he has made.

La Follette Confident
Mr. La Follette came to his home in Madison after closing his twenty-fifth year of campaigning at Platteville, set in the opinion that not only would he be re-nominated in the republican primary, but that the whole state ticket headed by Governor J. J. Blaine would be returned.

Retirement from the supreme court bench is under consideration by Associate Justice William R. Day. ## BISHOP FALLOWS DIES IN CHICAGO AT ADVANCED AGE

Bishop Samuel Fallows.

HEAD OF REFORMED EPISCOPAL CHURCH PASSES AWAY TODAY

Falls to Recover from Exhaustion of Overland Journey; in Eighty-seventh Year

CHICAGO, Ill.—Bishop Samuel Fallows, presiding bishop of the Reformed Episcopal church, famous as preacher, soldier, author and lecturer, died at 4:30 o'clock this morning at his residence after an illness of slightly less than a month.

Bishop Fallows' death, a shock to the religious world, especially, but a cause of sorrow throughout civilized humanity, was unexpected in spite of his advanced age. He was approaching his 87th birthday.

The bishop fell ill of pneumonia last winter and to that was attributed the beginning of his fatal illness. Last spring he went to California where he was able to recuperate.

He did not return to Chicago until August 14, hopeful of regaining his old vigor and re-assuming his varied activities which had made him one of the most widely known national figures.

Long Journey Too Much
The long overland trip, however, drained his strength and the following day he was reported ill of exhaustion.

With the bishop during his illness was his daughter Alice, and his son, Edward of New York, came to Chicago to be with his father.

The bishop at noon yesterday suffered a relapse which was seen to be a critical stage. He then sank gradually until the end came peacefully this morning.

Made Bishop in 1876
Bishop Fallows was raised to the bishopric in 1876 and was re-elected seven times. As head of the church on the North American continent he became an international figure.

His civil war career, embracing a chaplaincy, when he helped to organize a regiment of college men and became lieutenant colonel of the Thirty-second regiment from Wisconsin, included service until 1863. He became colonel of the Forty-ninth Wisconsin regiment, and was brevetted brigadier-general.

Lived Near Madison
Bishop Fallows' family, after coming to America from England and crossing to what was then much of a wilderness, settled near Madison, Wis. As a boy he worked on the farm often ten hours a day, as he took pride in telling afterwards. He worked on a little public school and later worked for $1 a week as a farm-hand to get money to attend college.

FORTY MEN REPORTED ENTOMBED IN BLAST IN BRITISH COAL PIT

MAN SENTENCED TO SEA AFTER BIGAMY CHARGE

SAN FRANCISCO.—Lewis King, who was doing well on five years' probation given him following his conviction for burglary until he was arrested for bigamy, has been sentenced to go to sea.

Captain Henry Nelson, skipper of a sailing vessel about to leave for New York and European ports, asked the court that he be given King's custody, agreeing to accept responsibility for his actions.

"He has too many wives already," protested his honor, "and with another one added in every port, it won't be good for him."

"At least," replied the skipper, "they won't meet."

The court thought that one over and then gave King his "liberty," said liberty meaning the run of a windjammer from stem to stern and from ruck to keel.

PROHIBITION STANDS OUT AS BIG ISSUE IN BADGER PRIMARY

Anti-Saloon League and Association Opposed to Prohibition, Active in Campaign

Drys Endorse Ganfield and Wets Approve La Follette

Both Factions also Take Stand on Legislative Candidates

MADISON, Wis.—By The Associated Press.—Prohibition stood out as a dominant issue of the republican congressional contests in the Wisconsin general election primary Tuesday as voters went to the polls.

Choice of a Wisconsin delegation favorable to their stand on the wet and dry question was actively sought by both the Wisconsin Anti-Saloon league and Wisconsin Association Against the Prohibition Amendment. Six of the eleven members of congress from congress during the last term were considered as wet by the Anti-Saloon league, which is making an effort to capture control of the delegation.

Drys Oppose La Follette
The contest for United States senator between Senator R. M. La Follette and W. A. Ganfield, has brought Anti-Saloon league endorsement to Ganfield and opposition to La Follette. Opposition to Ganfield is expressed by the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, which says that the record of Senator La Follette "is satisfactory on our question."

In the first congressional district, Congressman H. A. Cooper, endorsed by the Anti-Saloon league, is opposed by Lawrence C. Whitely, said by the Association Against Prohibition to be "satisfactory on our question," and by the Anti-Saloon league to have "voted dry in the assembly."

Four out in Third District
Two dry candidates and two candidates opposed to prohibition are running in the third district. Congressman John M. Nelson, "Wisconsin's first dry congressman," the Anti-Saloon league says, is opposed by Alvin Peterson, a dry, and by F. K. Shuttlesworth and Conrad Pilz, both considered wet.

Bock Fair, Say Wets
Congressman Joseph Beck, who, according to the anti-prohibitionists, "voted for medicinal beer and is fair," is opposed in the seventh district by A. C. Kingsford, an active dry.

LABOR LEADERS GO EAST FOR PARLEY ON GENERAL STRIKE
Federal Injunction Scored in Labor Day Addresses; Await Court Action

Won't Interfere With Rights
The injunction proceedings will be followed up with the determination of guaranteeing the country against interference with transportation, a high official of the administration declared Tuesday. Constitutional liberties of law-abiding citizens will not be abridged, it was said.

Score Rail Injunction
CHICAGO, Ill.—With the government's rail strike injunction universally condemned by union leaders in Labor day messages Monday, impending federal court action in cases growing out of arrests for alleged violations of the writ occupied the foreground of the picture of the nation's industrial situation Tuesday. The customary Labor day celebrations and gatherings were featured generally by speeches assailing the injunction. In some cities, notably Chicago, the usual Labor day programs were dispensed with entirely.

Leaders to Atlantic City
Members of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor turned their steps towards Atlantic City, Tuesday. Although their conference was originally set to begin next Saturday the leaders planned to take possession of a private suite in a hotel at Atlantic City Wednesday. At this gathering Mr. Gompers said he would place before the committee requests from various labor organizations for a general strike call. Federation officials had previously asserted the council is without authority to call a general strike without sanction by a national convention of the federation.

Investigate Attempt at Wreck
At Ardmore, Okla., inspectors were investigating what Santa Fe railroad officials said was an attempt to wreck a passenger train bound from Kansas City to Galveston. The engineer reported he found an open switch with the signal lights broken off.

IMPROVE CARBURETOR TO OFFSET HIGH GAS PRICES IN FRANCE

Gasoline Prices Range from 55c to 60c Per Gallon; Seek to Obtain Better Mileage

MINUTE NEEDLE IS USED IN INTRICATE CHINESE EMBROIDERY

Ancient Work Far Surpassing that of the Present on Exhibition in Washington

WASHINGTON.—By the Associated Press.—Ancient Chinese embroidery work, far surpassing the finest of the present time, and which must have been done with a tiny needle much smaller than seen now, was on exhibition in Washington recently.

So fine is the work that the finest details of the features of the figures represented were clear; the hairs on the heads, beards, small muscles in the limbs, worked in minute detail.

The smallest needle in the world, which is used much finer than the finest needle, is now in the National Museum here, yet the experts said, the Chinese work must have been done with a needle fine enough to pass through the eye of that needle.

The exhibit was a portion of the collection of Lady Georgiana Vizenovitch, wife of Sir Vincent Vizenovitch, former judge of the International Court at Shanghai. The price paid for the large collection consisted of eight Pak Hsion embroidered panels representing the eight Chinese immortals, which included the minute work described. They were made some time during the Ming dynasty, more than 400 years ago.

A beauty of the old Chinese art, which was pointed out in Lady Vizenovitch's collection is the way in which the colors remain, assist in preserving the silk fibres and retain their freshness through the ages.

Lady Vizenovitch is credited with being a foremost authority on Chinese artistry and her collection is one of the most remarkable in the world. It takes just 150 trunks to transport it.

This phrase originated in a marriage custom of Sicily. The father of the bride hands the bridegroom a bone saying, "Pick this bone; you have undertaken a most difficult task." Apparently married life among the Sicilians did not always run smoothly.

"It was an unusual wedding in our respect."

"What was that?"

"The mother of the groom approved the match."

POLICE LACK CLUE IN MYSTERY DEATH OF CHICAGO COUPLE

Await Test by Chemists to Determine Cause of Death; Seek Poison

CHICAGO.—Investigation by police and the coroner's office into the deaths of Wilhelmina Hols, wealthy retired saloonkeeper and his wife, Annie, found dead in the basement of their home at 1732 North Francisco avenue, Sunday morning, has failed to reveal anything that might lead to a solution of the case, it was announced Monday night.

No Tangible Clue
Not a single tangible clue has been uncovered. Samples of the contents of the stomach and specimens of the blood of the man and woman are now in the city laboratory, where analysis will be made by Coroner's Chemist William D. McNally.

Lead, James Doherty of the North avenue station believes the couple were poisoned by spoiled food. Coroner's Physician John M. Goitra, however, doubts this theory.

Arsenic Poisoning Possible
Another theory is that the couple were administered or took voluntarily some poison, possibly arsenic.

The possibility that the couple died in a "suicide pact" was declared improbable by relatives and friends.

ACROSS THE EMPTY CONTINENT
The McCallum motor expedition has recently returned to Adelaide, Australia, after having crossed the Australian Continent through the center, from the South Coast to the North Coast and back, covering nearly six thousand miles in sixty-seven days.

The leader of the expedition and his twin brother, who are over 70 years of age, were accompanied by Captain White, a well-known ornithologist and traveler. The three cars gave not the slightest trouble, notwithstanding the extraordinary tests to which they were subjected.

They accomplished the entire journey unaided, traversing at one stage twenty-eight miles over drifting sandhills some fifty feet high, and at another thirteen miles through continuous flood water. The cars averaged 100 miles a day for 3,546 miles.

This country is so sparsely settled that it is referred to as the "empty continent," although much of the land has but to be planted to bear excellent crops.

LADYSMITH MAN IS JAILED AFTER CHRISTENING ROW

LADYSMITH, Wis.—Mike Romanzon, charged with intent to do great bodily harm at a christening party at the home of Alex Bedowski in Rosk county, was bound over to circuit court for trial when arraigned in municipal court here. Though Romanzon pleaded not guilty, he was committed to the county jail to await trial.

The hearing was a sequel to a christening party held at the Bedowski home, at which Romanzon is alleged to have engaged in a row with Joe Waltz over an alleged slighting remark about Waltz's wife.

Mrs. Waltz endeavored to prevent a fight by throwing herself between the men and had two fingers nearly severed by a knife claimed to have been wielded by Romanzon.

DRAPED WALLS FOR THE WIRELESS STUDIO

If you have occasion or the opportunity to visit one of the broadcast stations, from which various kinds of information and entertainment are scattered over the country for the edification of those who "listen in," you will probably note that the walls are covered with curtains or at least with rather heavy paper.

There will be at least a liberal number of curtains breaking up the wall surface and the floor will be padded. It has been discovered that this condition is best suited for the transmission of the waves. One of the leading stations in the eastern part of the country and one of the first to be established, was in the cloak room of a factory where the walls were covered with the clothes of work-people all the time the station was in operation.

When it was moved to a beautifully furnished room with paneling on the wall it was found that the apparatus was not working nearly as satisfactorily as it had been. The secret was in the manner that the walls and ceiling of the room were finished. When the beautiful decorations were replaced with heavy hanging and the ceiling's smooth surface broken up by a rather effect, the installation resumed its oldtime standard of operation and all was well.

PLANE GOES INTO "NOSE DIVE" AND TWO ARE CRUSHED

Aviator and Passenger May Die as Result of Injuries in Evanston Air Crash

CHICAGO—Ben Buscher, 24 years old, of Niles Center, and Price Hollingsworth, aviator at Burmeister flying field, Evanston, were probably fatally injured Monday when a nose dive which Hollingsworth couldn't "straighten out" crushed the plane and both men were buried under the wreckage.

It was the first serious accident Hollingsworth ever had had, according to field officials. He is said to be the second flier in America as to total flying time.

Nose Dive Proves Undoing

Hollingsworth was flying a passenger machine in the closing day of a two day air meet at the field. Buscher went up for a ten minute ride.

Most of the ten minutes had passed when Hollingsworth, who lives in Chicago at 622 Barry avenue, decided to give his passenger a little stunt flying. They did several tricks successfully and then went into a nose dive. Down through the air whirled the big machine. As it neared the ground Hollingsworth was seen working the controls in a frantic effort to "straighten out" preparatory to ascending again for the last volplane to the ground.

Accident Closes Meet

But something happened—just what hasn't yet been determined—and the big machine kept on down, nose first, at terrific speed.

It struck and collapsed. The two men were pulled out from the wreckage, both unconscious, and rushed to the hospital.

The meet, attended by Maj. Rich Landis, American ace; Maj. R. W. Schroeder, former altitude record holder, and Pilot Eddie Stinson, promptly closed.

PRIEST ACCUSED OF BEING UNAMERICAN IS FLOGGED BY MOB

FORT WORTH, Texas.—The Rev. Joseph Meiser, Catholic parish priest at Olin, Itasca county, was taken from his parish house Sunday night by ten unmasked men and flogged. He was accused of being un-American and opposed to public schools.

Father Meiser told the sheriff that the gangsters informed him he was being beaten because of his alleged un-American attitude and charged further that he had been forced to leave a previous parish for the same reason.

FRENCH GOLD HELD IN LONDON TO BE RETURNED TO PARIS

Britain to Release Funds Held as Security for Credits Advanced to France

PARIS.—It is announced that approximately 500,000,000 gold francs of the 1,948,000,000 of the French gold on deposit with the bank of England since 1916, as guarantee for credits advanced to the French government, are to be returned to French within a few days.

Considerable satisfaction is expressed in the finance ministry and the Bank of France and it is planned to continue the payments against which the gold was hypothecated until the entire amount is returned.

French financiers have been concerned over the tying up in the Bank of England for six years of nearly two-fifths of the Bank of France's gold. It is felt that it will give somewhat greater liberty of political action to France which has for some time been suffering from an enormous part of its gold held abroad.

MEXICAN REBELS ARE GETTING ARMS FROM EUROPE IS CHARGE

Two Ships Chartered to Bring Munitions from Abroad, Government is Informed

EL PASO, Tex.—Agents of the government in El Paso who are following revolutionary activities in Mexico said Monday that they had information that Manuel Pelaez has chartered two ships to carry rifles and ammunition to Mexico for revolutionary purposes.

One of the ships is to be loaded at a Spanish port and another at a port in Germany, it was reported.

Pelaez, reputed to be quite wealthy, was "king" in the Vera Cruz and Tampico oil fields during President Carranza's administration.

Information received by Gen. Francisco Murgula's agents in El Paso that 150 men from Villa's ranch had left him to join Murgula's forces was discredited by government men in El Paso. Murgula and Villa are old time enemies, and Villa is said to have his men under control.

AMERICAN WOMEN PROTEST CHANGES IN VOLSTEAD LAW

Letters from all Over Nation Received by Union Signal, W. C. T. U. Official Organ

LEADING WOMEN TELL OF THE EVILS OF DRINK PROBLEM

Advantages of Prohibition Law Set Forth in Letters

IVANSTON, Ill.—Many letters from leading American women protesting against any change in the Volstead law, have been received by the Union Signal, the official publication of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, that publication announced today. Among the women whose names appear in the publication are the following:

Mrs. R. B. Jones, Great Commandery of the Minutemen.

"I have been working with a group of fellow women who have seen the difficulties which women face in connection with the drink problem. Every woman is expressing to me the feeling of change which has been brought about by the Volstead Amendment. For the first time in many years the wages of the head of the family are used for the benefit of the home and family instead of being spent in the saloon."

Mrs. F. E. Kelley, Pres. National Consumers' League: "Among the many reasons the testimony is given that ability to pay a monetary fine for getting drunk is far more important than ever before. Teaching in the public schools in the working class districts tell me that they are being often called upon to buy a drink for the pupils whose fathers are living."

Mrs. J. B. Ballington, Booth: "My work has chiefly in the prisons. It is there that I see the difference. I have been told by a number of our friends that prohibition has cut down the number of arrests I am positive from my experience in the homes of the poor that prohibition will promote health, prosperity and happiness of the family."

Katherine D. Blake, educator and writer: "One has only to look at the facts which in our newspapers to realize that the vast majority in every direction trying to discredit the law of the land. Everyone who is interested in the enforcement of the Volstead Amendment should answer the articles which are being written, and in all probability should be by the brewers and distillers."

Gertrude R. Scaup, Thorp, Wash.: "I do not think it is possible for one unfamiliar with conditions under which to realize what a serious American means to the home industry, employers and employees. In the last few weeks I have asked both of them this question: 'What are the effects of prohibition?' This reply came from a lumber dealer and factory man of thirty years' experience:

"Our men come to their work more regularly, have become better educated, are more faithful and reliable, and every man is back at his job after a day's work. Money that formerly went to the saloon is now used for the home and to buy family necessities. Fathers now realize their duties and spend their spare time with their children. My men nearly all have cars and enjoy life."

THE TEST FOR PEARLS

The "cultivated" pearls of the Japanese are difficult to detect from the natural ones. As it is well known, they are made by the same process practically. The Japanese introduce small seed pearls into living oysters and these secrete a layer after layer of more around this nucleus.

At a recent meeting of the French Academy of Sciences, Messrs. J. G. Bourne and F. Ruziger described a method by which it is possible to tell whether a pearl is natural or cultivated. They take advantage of the fact that pearls are usually pierced with a small hole in order to thread them on wires or strings. They place this hole under a microscope and illuminate it by focusing a strong light through the translucent wall. A very minute mirror is then introduced into the hole. A droplet of mercury forms this mirror. Its rounded surface reflecting the interior of the pearl and allowing photographs to be taken.

The inventors assert that if the cultivated pearl there is a sharp line of division between the introduced nuclei and the subsequently deposited layers, whereas, in a natural pearl, although the many concentric layers can be observed, the outlines of these are not sharply marked, but fade one into the other.

Poison Does Not "Take"

Children are immune to strychnine. They may eat any amount of it without serious consequences to themselves but their flesh becomes so saturated that says a nature writer, that strychnine is death to whatever touches it.

To catch some most poisonous animal, a strychnine bait was killed and used as bait. Not all the other fowls were strictly excluded lest they become dangerous for human food and the remaining animal paid the penalty.

Roll Butter

The young housekeeper who told the fishman that she wanted some fish and when he asked her how much, replied, "About two yards and a half," has a rival in a Baltimore woman.

"I wish to get some butter, please," she said to the dealer.

"Roll butter, ma'am?" he asked, politely.

"No, we wish to eat it on toast," she solemnly replied.

WHERE THERE'S LOTS OF SCENERY

Barring not famed Brooklyn bridge, subways, Royal Gorge, Bartholdi statue, Pennsylvania Horse-shoe Bend, nor ought else, one of the greatest exhibits of engineering and construction in this country is the railroad through Carrizo Gorge, on the newly completed San Diego & Arizona Railway.

The road is built almost on the sky line. It enters into and emerges from Mexico twice, and is part of the only direct line from the Pacific coast to the Gulf of Mexico. At one point its track lies 3600 feet above sea level, and at another 49 feet below.

Cost of the 11 miles through Carrizo Gorge was $3,930,000, the 21 tunnels alone costing $1,762,200. In the case of one tunnel, the train enters from the United States and emerges into Mexico.

Riding in the sky, one looks down, thousands of feet, on acres of mountainside and mesa, the latter in the spring painted with brilliant blossoms of many varieties.

The pictures show views of the mountainous country and some of the obstacles overcome in the construction of the railway. In the lower right scene, note the tracks built across yawning chasms and along shelves cut into the solid rock.

Monkey Uses Reasoning Power

It used to be thought that beast and birds were guided in their action entirely by instinct, reason playing no part whatever in their daily lives. But now naturalists are not so sure.

To learn to use a lever as a mechanical instrument implies, one would think, a certain amount of reasoning power. Yet a monkey kept in captivity, employed a stick to prise up the lid of a chest, which was otherwise too heavy for the animal to raise.

YOU'LL GET RID OF BLACKHEADS SURE

There is one simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads that is to dissolve them. To do this get two ounces of calomine powder from any drug store—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge—rub over the blackheads briskly—wash the parts and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Big blackheads, little blackheads, no matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear, leaving the parts without any mark whatever. Blackheads are simply a mixture of dust and dirt and accretions from the body that form in the pores of the skin. Pinching and squeezing only cause irritation, make large pores, and do not get the blackheads out after they become hard. The calomine powder and the water simply dissolve the blackheads so they wash right out, leaving the pores free and clean and in their natural condition. Anyone troubled with these unsightly blemishes should certainly try this simple method.

LEGION BOXING SHOW GOES OVER THE TOP AS GRAND SUCCESS

CRADEN-TAYLOR FIGHT TO DRAW IN LEGION SHOW

Ten-round Final is Fast, and Hard Fought. With Neither Able to Claim Decision

JIMMY GILL HANDS GROVER K. O. IN THE THIRD ROUND

Jimmie Van Bests Levine; Burns and Becker Fight Close

BOXING as a sport has lost nothing in popularity during the years that it has been off the lists in La Crosse. The crowd at the first show of the American Legion, held Monday night at the hall to overflowing, and their enthusiastic applause of the good work displayed a great deal of interest in the result of the main event.

Sammy Craden, of Milwaukee, and Jimmy Taylor, a Rochester, N. Y., fighter, battled ten hard rounds in the main event. It was anybody's fight until the last round sounded, and the fight finding both men going and taking blows about equal.

Craden started fast and forced the fighting all through the first round, landing several good jabs to the head and face but Taylor, on the defensive, covered well and managed to return a few of the whippers. The men were both underweight at three pounds, having been booked for 125 pounds. Taylor weighed in at 115 and Craden at 121.

The second and third rounds were even, neither being able to gain any advantage and neither landing any effective blows. Both took turns in being the better.

Taylor carried the fight to Craden in the fourth and landed several telling punches before Craden could get his bearings. The Rochester boy followed his blows closely, and seemed to be able to get out of danger when threatened. His long right hook was especially effective in this round.

In the fifth both battled hard, but neither was able to claim superiority in the argument. The sixth round was also even, both fighters playing a wary game, and neither landing an effective punch until near the end of the round, when they figured in an even exchange.

The seventh and eighth rounds were battles for blood, both contestants striving gamely to gain the top position but both giving and receiving in about equal proportion. In the ninth the effects of the two fast rounds previous showed on the two fighters, but they scrapped hard, the round again being even.

The tenth and last started with a rush and for a minute a regular old-time slam-bang give and take battle which was, however, which left both fighters somewhat dazed. The round finished even, and at the end neither could claim the fight.

Gill Scores K. O. Jimmy Gill, La Crosse, a protégé of "Peanuts" Schieber, Rock Island fight manager, knocked out George Grover, also of La Crosse, in the third round of their scheduled six round semi-final. The men were evenly matched as to weight, Gill being 115 pounds and Grover 116, but Grover had it on Gill in height and reach. In the first round, both were waiting to see what the other had, and the round ended even, but in the second, Gill opened up with a volley of smashing blows, Grover came back and had Gill slightly dizzy when the bell intervened.

Gill claimed a foul in the third when Grover was hit, but the referee ordered the fight to go on. Gill came back strong and soon had Grover on his feet. Grover went down on one knee and it looked as though he would be able to continue the fight, but at the corner of eight he slumped to the floor and had to be assisted out of the ring.

Van Wins. Charley Levine, 117 pound Milwaukee fighter, his first professional fight, put up a game little battle in the second preliminary, but was out-boxed by Jimmie Van of La Crosse. In spite of his defeat, Charley is a corner with bright prospects for a successful ring career. He is only 19 years old, and has plenty of time to learn the tricks of the ring.

Jimmie Van is a ring general par excellence. Despite the fact that it is two years since he fought before, he was able to best his opponent. His win was not all that it should be, and his judgement of distance was faulty at times, but he covered these defects with an exhibition of ring craft and speed that caused fans to bowl with delight. Jimmie is a clever seapper and he made a big hit with the audience Monday night. He deserves a better place on the next card. Both boxers were underweight—the bout having been set for 119 pounds. Van tipped the scales at 115 1/2 and Levine went to 117.

The opening battle was closely contested, both men fighting hard throughout the mix. Both were on the receiving end of several healthy whippers, though Becker's seemed to have the biggest kick. Burns had two ribs broken in the second round when he stopped one of Becker's hooks, but stuck it out pluckily to the end of the row. Burns weighed 128, and Becker 124 pounds.

The fans went away from the show satisfied that they had received their money's worth, and many expressed the hope that the Legion will continue the good work and put on several cards during the coming winter season.

Bitter Struggle Foreseen When Montagues Meet Blair For Third Time Wednesday

Perhaps greater interest than any game on the Montague schedule exists over the coming encounter Wednesday afternoon with the strong Blair aggregation, which comes here for the third game of the season with the Montague club. The game will begin at 4:30.

As the games stand to date the locals have won and lost to Blair and it is this third game that the Montags are up with determination to win. The first fracas between the two teams was a victory for the up-staters, 2 to 1. It was played earlier in the season when Gunderson was the locals' shooter. The second contest went to the home team, 6 to 1.

RICHARDS SOON TO START WORK OF LANDING FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP FOR BADGERS

MADISON, Wis. — Coach John Richards sailed from Rotterdam August 25 and will be in Madison to begin the work of landing a football championship for Wisconsin. Word to that effect was received at the University this week. Practice will begin at 10:30 on the morning of the fifteenth of September.

A difficult job confronts Coach Richards this year. Six mainstays of last year's team have been lost by graduation and a seventh, Kibi Brumm, is in the hospital suffering from injuries received last August in a fall from a silo in process of construction. The men lost by graduation are Sumdt, Captain and fullback last year; Elliott, Gould and Woods, backs; Runge, center, and Brader, left tackle. This is a heavy loss for a football team to sustain.

Men of last year's cardinal squad who will be back this year are Captain-elect Rollie Williams, Gibson, Whitten, Taft, Carlson, and Crozier, backs, Tebell, Hohlheid, Christiansen, Irish, Sykes, Scherneck, Platten, Pearce, Kiessling, Carlson, and Brentson, linemen.

Three men who were members of the Freshman team of 1919, generally considered the best Freshman team a recent years, are now eligible. They are Murray and Billingson, linemen, and Puskasi, end. Considerable help is expected from the "All-Americans" of last year. Men from this group who are expected to be in moleskins are Bellow, Richerstein, and Paige linemen; Caari, Stoll and Slaughter, backs.

Athletes uncovered in Spring practice this year are Flatoes, Jones, and C. R. Willey, ends; Sid Eagleburger, a back, Louis Nelson, and Strain, linemen. The Freshman squad contributes a number of men who looked good last fall. They are Harris, Harmon, Kingston, Cassidy, Koch, Millman, Nolte, Collins, Smadai, O'Brien, Beatty, Radke, and Teckelmeier and others.

ment of physical education at the University of Wisconsin, refereed the bouts. He introduced Sailor Petroskey, light heavyweight champion of the Navy for eight years. The Sailor is willing to meet any man at a weight anywhere from 165 to 175 pounds. The referee also introduced Frankie Schmalzer of Milwaukee, a new addition to "Peanuts" Schieber's stable. Schmalzer challenged either of the contenders in the Craden-Taylor fight. Craden won a decision over Schmalzer in Milwaukee last week.

FANS HEAVE SIGH OF RELIEF AS SOX DEPART FROM HERE

Second Attempt of Iowans to Play Ball is Utter Failure; Score 24 to 1

JAEGER SECURED AT LAST MINUTE TO PITCH GAME

Odenwald Cancels Engagement Because of Split Finger

The Dubuque White Sox left town last night.

And local baseball fans heaved a deep and refreshing sigh of relief at the departure after witnessing the most careless, wreckless and "rottenest" attempt at an exhibition of ball any visiting team has appeared in since baseball was first played in La Crosse. The final reckoning was 24 to 1.

Perhaps it was harder to take in view of the fact that the outfit has a reputation as a ball club. When they left town, as one fan expressed it, they had neither a reputation or their Sox. And the Nelson management had to pay good money for that.

Locals in Good Game The slap-stick performance of the visitors, did not, however, detract from the exhibition staged by the local club. When the visitors did show a little sign of life, the effort was not square on the nose and with the exception of Selander's home run in the fourth inning, they didn't have a show.

Jaeger of Caledonia, came over at the eleventh hour to hurl for the locals when Odenwald, who was scheduled, wired that he had sustained and injured finger. The telegram came into hands of the local management late Monday morning. It read as follows: "Lincoln, Minn., Sept. 3, 1922. Nelson clothing company. Manager, baseball club, La Crosse, Wisconsin. Cannot come to pitch a 10-inning game on Sunday which he lost to Houston, 4 to 3. He allowed but five hits here."

Fatten Averages The locals took the opportunity of fattening their stick averages against the three clubs used by Dubuque. Every man got at least two swipes. Schaefer alone getting as many as the entire visiting club. Klundrud, of course, couldn't get along without his home run and to keep him company Smith went way around.

Schneider got tired after the fifth with 13 hits against him. Young came in from left field only to get sloughed for 11 more. Altman walked on the slab from third base and stuck it out until the nine innings were up.

WINONAS AND CHAINS SPLIT IN TWO GAMES SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Winonas Have Advantage in Five-game Series; Games Stand Three and Two

The Winonas and Pelee's Chains split even in two games at Winona Sunday and Monday, the former taking the first game, 2 to 0, while the Chains won the Labor day battle, 7 to 6. The Winonas have won three contests to the Chains two.

Lefty Hier was in the box for the Winonas Sunday, with "Cannonball" Moss as his opponent. The second game was the Chains' all the way through, the Winonas rallying in the ninth to put over three scores but fell short to cap the tilt.

FORDS HUMBLE BUD AGGREGATION, 12-8 IN SUNDAY CONTEST

Locals Held Opponents to 10 to 0 Score Until Seventh Inning of Game

Holding their opponents scoreless until the seventh inning, Dahl's Fords defeated the Bud aggregation on the latter's diamond Sunday by a score of 12 to 8. Bud tallied six runs in the seventh.

The local aggregation was never in serious danger, however it seemed at times that the heavy-hitting of the Budites would be fatal to the Fords. "Fat" Steege featured with the club for the local team, getting four hits in five attempts.

Van Gilder was steady in the pincches and kept the visitors' hits well scattered.

RIVOLI THEATER IS VICTOR OVER REIMANS ON MONDAY, 19 TO 5

Stellick Starts Out With Home Run on First Ball; Krismer Pitches for Reimans

The Rivoli Theater baseball nine defeated the Reimans in their Labor day tussle at West avenue, 19 to 5. Krismer pitched for the Reimans, allowing 6 hits.

Stellick started the scoring for the Rivolis by rapping a home run off the first ball pitched. The drive cleared the centerfielder's head, Stronish, on the mound for the Rivolis, passed out but five hits. Errors contributed to a large extent to the large score hung up by the Rivoli nine. Grabinski hurled one inning for the Rivolis, but had to retire because of a sore arm.

It is estimated there will be 15,000,000 motor vehicles on the highways in the next decade.

MUTH AND VENEMAN DIVIDE THE HONORS, ALMOST EVENLY

Five-mile Race Hotly Contested; Muth Wins

A crowd estimated at nearly 1500 saw the fastest and most hotly contested bicycle race meet of the season run off at the fair grounds track Monday morning.

All the races were exceptionally close with Frank Muth and Wayne Veneman the two leading stars. Muth won three firsts and Veneman two firsts and two seconds.

The five mile race was the most exciting on the program, when for lap after lap, Muth, Pauley, Skaif and Veneman rode in the order named each at no time over a foot from the rear wheel of the man ahead of him. Coming into the last quarter mile Veneman made a fast sprint and took the lead only to lose it again to Muth on the last eighth. Muth crossed the tape only a length ahead of Veneman, with Skaif and Paulsen each another length behind.

Results
The results of the races are:
Half mile novice junior race: 1st, Sam Monsoor; 2nd, Peter Peterson; 3rd, Ferris David. Time: 1:40 2-5.

DAHL'S FORDS AND WILE BROTHERS IN TIE GAME, 8 TO 8

Game Called at End of Seventh Inning on Account of Darkness

Dahl's Fords and the Wile Brothers played an 8 to 8 game at Copeland park Monday evening following the Nelson contest with Dubuque. The contest was called at the end of the seventh on account of darkness.

Both teams put up a good brand of ball and it served as a good "wash" to fans who remained after the major attraction. The tie will be played off a week from next Sunday, it was announced.

"THE MASQUERADER"—RIVOLI
 "The Masquerader" which is the current feature at the Rivoli Theatre, comes to the screen from the stage with a record that has probably never been equalled. For more than three years it has served as a vehicle for Guy Bates Post, following a stupendous tour in the big cities with a prolonged tour that covered every part of America, Canada and Australia.

Trained by long experience, the actor gives an intimate study of the characteristics of the two men: one a leader gone astray, and the other an impeccable genius. In impoverished circumstances, a cast of excellence interprets the supporting parts.

CASINO TODAY
 A thrilling story of the west "Moonshine Valley," a big William Fox production with William Farnum as the star, will come to the Casino Theatre today.

The popularity of Farnum grows greater with every new picture in which he appears. And there is good reason for this. William Farnum's pictures are always blooded thrills. Farnum represents man as we all wish to see him—a man who fights for right, who battles against injustice, large and small.

In "Moonshine Valley" he has a beautiful background for his work—most of the scenes in the play are laid in the western foothills. Sadie Millen, a new comer to the screen, is Farnum's leading lady.

"MAN FROM LOST RIVER"—MAJESTIC

The great northwest woods are really the central influence in "The Man From Lost River," which was presented at the Majestic Theatre last night. The action of Katherine Nevins' story takes place in a lumber camp where the men lead crude lives close to nature. The softening influence of women is absent, though in the camp dwells an orphan girl, the pride of the men. Into this group comes a sophisticated Easterner who falls in love with the girl and marries her. The dramatic conflict entwines the camp foreman who has silently adored the girl all the while; and it is the unattractiveness of her husband in a time of crisis that both removes him from the scene and shows the girl the worth of a noble man's love.

STRENUOUS SAWDUST STORY

F. M. Davenport, professor of political science at Hamilton college, Clinton, N. Y., once made a speech before the American Newspaper Publishers' association. After speaking of the newspaper as an organ of democracy, fraternity and equality, Prof. Davenport concluded with the admirable:

"Once there was a country newspaper man who mixed sawdust with his meal he fed his hens. He thought the newspaper would never know the difference. But they got even. When he came to set the eggs, half the brood hatched were woodpeckers. Whatsoever a newspaper soweth, that shall also reap."

CHEERFUL NEWS

"When you go to New Zealand to wish you would inquire after my dear-grandfather, Jeremiah Thompson." "Certainly," said the traveler, and wherever he went he asked for the name of the ancestor, but without avail. One day he was introduced to a fine old Maori of advanced age. ## COLONEL BROOKHART DENIES HE SOUGHT RADICALS' SUPPORT

Was Not Present at Chicago
Radical Meeting, Declares
Iowa Senate Candidate

DES MOINES, Iowa.—Colonel Smith W. Brookhart, republican nominee for United States senator from Iowa, in a Labor day address Monday answered for the first time in his campaign the charges of Clyde L. Herring, democratic nominee, that he was present at a meeting in Chicago last spring at which the foremost radical leaders of the country were present.

"That I sat as a delegate at this meeting, and as a reward I received the assistance of a number of anarchistic leaders who were sent into the state to campaign for me before the primary, I denounce as absolutely false," the colonel said.

Union Chiefs Fight Reds

"I met W. H. Johnson of the machinists and H. E. Willis, assistant grand chief of the engineers, in Washington. They told me the purpose of the conference. They said it was not to promote a new party or begin a radical agitation, but the exact opposite. They said there were some radicals and socialists in the labor movement, but that they wished to head them off in an open conference where the radicals would be many times outnumbered."

"They said it was their purpose to lead the great solid and reliable part of union labor on a sound American platform in the old parties and in cooperation with the farmers."

"I was invited to this conference, but I had only a few hours in Chicago between trains. I had an appointment with Dante M. Pierce of the Iowa Homestead, but he left word for me to meet him at this conference. I went there, but it was late and they adjourned in a few minutes and he took me to my train."

Asks Aid of Unions

"Mr. Herring's corporation attorneys are putting out a constant propaganda for the purpose of prejudicing my mind against you union men. I want the laboring men to help elect this republican ticket in Iowa, and defeat the Wall Street gang that has gone over to the democratic party in this state."

Colonel Brookhart reiterated his platform of a soldiers' bonus and a farmer, mother and labor bloc. He declared that his labors would always be out to the union men and their leaders.

FINAL ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS NOW IN SIGHT; POLITICS CALLS MEMBERS

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Final adjournment of the session of congress is now quite definitely in prospect by the end of the present month. With the conference reports on both the tariff bill and the soldiers' bonus bill promised within a week or ten days and only a few other measures to be acted upon no serious hitch in the program is likely.

Both houses reconvened Tuesday after a Labor day holiday. The senate resumes consideration of the administration coal bills. The house has no pressing business on hand and intends to adjourn tomorrow until Friday, at which time a conference report on one or both of the coal bills now before the senate may be ready for action.

Grain Futures Bill Impends

Following action on the coal bills, the senate will take up the Liberian loan bill, after which will come the Capper-Tincher grain futures bill and the Dyer anti-lynching bill. All of these measures have been acted upon by the house, which is being held in session only for the purpose of acting on conference reports. There is good reason to believe that final adjournment will come by Sept. 30 and possibly Sept. 23. This will make it possible for the senators and representatives to devote themselves to their political campaigns during the entire month of October.

A special session beginning about Nov. 10 for the consideration of the administration ship subsidy bill remains a probability. The regular winter session begins on Dec. 4.

While the conferees on the soldiers' bonus bill have given no consideration to the measure as yet, no difficulty is anticipated. The same conferees are in charge of the tariff bill and the bonus bill. Whether they take the latter up this week or wait until next week is not a matter of serious moment. There were not many important differences between the bonus bill as passed by the house and as reported to the senate from the finance committee.

Test of Veto Strength
The chief controversy will come on the amendments added in the senate providing a reclamation scheme and also appropriating funds from interest payments on foreign loans for the payment of the bonus. The real test of strength will come in an attempt to pass the bill over a probable Presidential veto.

In view of the settlement of the anthracite strike and the resumption of operations in the bituminous mines the fate of the administration bill giving the interstate commerce commission authority to control prices of coal by the use of priorities and embargoes is somewhat uncertain. There is considerable opposition to this bill in the senate which has already discussed it for several days and may reach a vote by the middle of the week.

Coal Commission Likely

In accordance with the recommendation included in the anthracite strike settlement agreement for a special commission to deal with conditions in the hard coal fields it is planned to amend the administration coal commission bill. Passage of the coal commission bill seems assured. The other coal bill has the right of way in the senate just now, but both should be disposed of by the end of the week. The house having passed both bills, their fate depends upon the senate action.

With the complete settlement of the coal strike the agitation for the taking over of the mines has died down. Congress, it is well understood, is not disposed to grant blanket authority to the president to take over either coal mines or railroads unless there is urgent need of such action.

FIRST NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

The first formal record in the possession of the New York stock exchange bears date of May 17, 1792, and is as follows: "We, the subscribing brokers for the purchase and sale of public stocks, do hereby solemnly promise and pledge ourselves to each other that we will not buy or sell from this day, for any person whosoever, any kind of public stock at a less rate than 3/4 per cent commission on the specie value, and we will give a preference to each other in our negotiations." This agreement was the foundation on which the great financial fabric of the New York stock exchange has been reared. For a quarter of a century the brokers of the American metropolis carried on their activities under this compact, and held their meetings in a Wall street coffee house and under a buttonwood tree at 68 Wall street.—Chicago Journal.

Gasoline For Every Motor Car

DURING June, 1922, 271 thousand automobiles and trucks were produced as against 180 thousand cars in June, 1921, and 256 thousand cars in May, 1922. This is a new high record.

The estimated increase for 1922 in automobile registration for the 10 states served by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is 500,000, making a probable registration for this territory of 3,850,000 automobiles and trucks besides a largely increased number of tractors.

This means that the already enormous demand for petroleum products will be materially increased. To meet this demand requires unremitting effort on the part of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

When you look down the street and see the curb lined with automobiles, parked so closely that you have difficulty in finding space for your car, multiply what you see by hundreds of streets in hundreds of towns all over the Middle West and you will have a faint conception of the problem confronting the petroleum industry.

Next consider that the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is performing without a hitch a large part of the job of supplying this multitude of machines with fuel. This is made possible by superb organization and by keen appreciation of human values in business.

The same spirit of progressiveness which is applied to refining methods, machinery, stills, storage depots, and to distributing units is also applied to the personnel of 26 thousand men and women all interested in carrying out the Company's policy of serving the public well.
